POSTAL EXHIBIT PROMISES TO BE INTERESTING ATTRACTION AT FAIR

Postmaster Earle Hughes Announces That Branch Post Office Will Be Established on Grounds; Souvenir Contains History

Postmaster Earle Hughes states that the public is responding liberally in the matter of assisting in and loaning articles for the parcels post exhibit to be made by the local post office at the Fresno District Fair.

The collection of the exhibits and the details of the arrangement is being handled by H. Bryant Ashton, superintendent of carriers. The Merchants' Association endorsed the project and supplied Mr. Ashton with the usual authority to solicit donations.

A branch post office will be established on the fair grounds in the booth among with the parcels post exhibit. Stamps will be sold, letters and parcels post packages mailed and accepted for mailing. Collections will be made at least twice daily. Possibly mail addressed to care of fair grounds will be distributed from this branch if it is found expedient.

Valuable Souvenirs

Among the articles loaned for the purpose of exhibition is a book of postal souvenirs, the property of Chas. E. Jenney of Fresno. Mr. Jenney is a local stamp collector who has a valuable collection of over 25,000 different kinds of stamps. The collection of these stamps has become a life hobby and Mr. Jenney states that through this means he has obtained a wide knowledge of geography, history and world politics.

One of the many interesting features of this collection is a stamp of local origin, whose history is narrated by Mr. Jenney as follows:

Local Mail History

"Our town history of Fresno has had its philatelic history, and a stamp issued here, provisionally to serve at a time when for once the United States mail failed, has become celebrated the world around."

"Most people living west of the Mississippi will remember the greatest labor uprising in this country, the 'Union Square' strike, beginning June 27, 1894, tied up all the great railroads west of Chicago for a period of over two weeks. During this time the United States mail was practically suspended in the West. A few local mail carriers, however, in California, but not a mail came into or went out of the state in that time."

Joseph's Service

"When the strike had been in operation a few days, and the outcome seemed dubious, Arthur C. Banta, of the Victor Cycles, conceived the idea of running a bicycle mail service. By relays from Fresno to San Francisco, this plan he carried out with eight relays, carrying mail daily from July 6 to July 18, via Gilroy and San Jose, at which latter date the railroad was back in operation."

blockade was raised by the aid of the state militia and the national troops. Eugene Jones, an engraver with Hall Bros, conceived the idea of using stamps for sale to the public, and he engraved the copper die and O. J. Trean, a local printer, printed for him the Fresno and San Francisco bicycle mail stamps. Eight hundred were printed before the writer pointed out to him that he had spelled San Francisco printed wrong with one 'n' and 'y' in 's'. He then remedied the spelling by roughly making the S into a C. Two thousand more were printed and the printer struck off 500 on his own account. There were also 200 each printed on white and amber government-stamped envelopes.

"The stamps were on sale in Selma, Fowler, Fresno, San Jose and San Francisco, the price being 25 cents for a single letter. The total number of letters carried, as shown by the records, was 350."

Pony Express

Another interesting feature was the Pony Express, a brief history of which is told by Mr. Jenney as follows:

"On April 9, 1860, a rider with a mail pouch mounted on a magnificent black horse left St. Joseph, Mo., on the ferryboat, bound west. At the same time a rider on a splendid white horse left San Francisco on the steamer for Sacramento. The letters carried by the former, by the swift relay of mounted riders, arrived in San Francisco in 8 days and 4 hours. This was the beginning of the famous Pony Express that traversed the wild Western plains and deserts, rivers and mountain ranges, carrying the mail across the continent. At all stations along the blazed skeleton of those brave riders and their mounts tell a gruesome tale of their hardships and dangers encountered in the days before the telegraph and the railroad."

"Forty fearless horsemen riding East and forty riding West in a relay maintained for two years a mail service that was a continuous effort until the completion of the first transcontinental telegraph line. One can scarcely realize that so short a time ago the lonely pioneers had to wait months for word from home by the steamer via Panama to San Francisco. The Pony Express was planned in 1831. The route was the west from St. Joseph to Fort Kearney, up the Platte to Julesburg, where it crossed by Fort Laramie and Fort Bridger to Salt Lake City; via Camp Floyd, Ruby Valley, the Humboldt, Carson City and Potosi to Sacramento and to San Francisco by boat."

"The relay stations were about 25 miles apart. Six hundred horses were bought along the frontier and in Texas. The 50 men engaged as riders were none over 110 pounds in weight and were selected from the young plainmen for bravery, endurance and quick shooting ability. Their pay was $25 a month. The first message sent was one of congratulation from President Buchanan to the governor of California. One of the riders was Wm. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), whose route lay in Nebraska."

Mark Twain's Description

Mark Twain in 'Roughing It' though not exact in details, tells graphically of the ride. He was not telling time for the ride or date. He rode 50 miles without stopping, by daylight, moonlight, starlight, or through the blackness of darkness, just as it happened. He rode a splendid horse that was a born racer, and fed and lodged as a gentleman. He kept him at his utmost speed for ten miles and then as he came crashing up to a station where stood two men holding fast a fresh, impatient steed, the transfer of a rider and mail-bag was made in the twinkling of an eye, and away flew the eager pair and were out of sight before the spectator could hardly get the ghost of a look. Both rider and horse went 'like lightning.' The rider's dress was thin and fitted close, he wore a roundabout and a skull cap, and tucked his pantaloons into his boot-tops like a race-rider. He carried nothing that was not absolutely necessary, for even the postage on his literary freight was worth $5 a letter. He got but little serious conversation to carry; his bag had business letters in it mostly. His horse was stripped of all unnecessary weight, too. He wore a little wafer of a racing saddle, and no visible blanket. He wore light shoes, of none at all. The little flat mail pockets strapped under the rider's thighs would each hold about the bulk of a child's primer. They held many and many an important business chapter and newspaper letter, but these were written on paper as airy and thin as gold-leaf, nearly."

"The dies of the stamps were engraved by Britton & Rey of San Francisco, and the original dies are now in the Wall Paper & Company museum in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco."

SANGER TOWN IN MORE LITIGATION

Suit Brought to Enjoin Construction of Septic Tank and Pumping Plant

The city of Sanger is in more litigation over its proposed sewer system with a suit brought yesterday by Fred Bender and six others to enjoin its from locating and constructing a septic tank and pumping plant on 17 1/2 acres in block 9 of Villa addition to Sanger. The plaintiffs have homes located within 100 or 500 feet of the location and their grievance is that the plants would be an intolerable nuisance, would necessarily emit unhealthy odors, be unsightly and produce defiling, disagreeable and disgusting noises, depreciate the value of the homes and make them undesirable, while creating a constant menace to health and comfort. The complaint was filed through E. D. Edwards, an attorney with the order to show cause returnable before Judge Church on October 5th.

TOBACCO GROWERS TO HAVE CHANCE IN MARKETS

Chamber of Commerce Invites Growers to Bring in Samples

New York Manufacturer
Agrees to Name Price
Consideration

It is practically assured that a market has been found for the tobacco grown in Fresno county. For sometime it has been a question as to what would be done with the approximately ninety tons of tobacco grown here, because the price offered by optionists have been very low and the grower did not feel justified in selling at such a low figure.

William Robertson, secretary for the chamber of commerce, has been seeking a market for the growers' surplus and has at last won a consideration from the P. Lorillard Company of New York. Robertson said yesterday that all growers holding tobacco will be notified of the consideration and invited to bring in samples of their tobacco at the earliest possible date that the chamber of commerce will send them to the New York concern and find out the prices to be paid.

The local growers will probably have very little trouble in disposing of their crops as soon as a foot-hold is gained in the eastern markets, according to men in touch with the situation. Naturally the growers in the old established districts oppose the consideration of the California product, which appears to be of a good average quality.

The letter received by Robertson is: September 21, 1914: Mr. Wm. Robertson, Secretary, Fresno County Chamber of Commerce, Fresno, Calif.

Dear Sir: We have your letter of September 5th addressed to our President, Mr. T. J. Maloney, in regard to tobacco held by growers in Fresno County, and in reply would say that if you will kindly have samples of this tobacco sent us with information as to price and quantity, we will be very glad indeed to examine same carefully and then advise you whether or not this tobacco would interest us. You, of course, understand that we could not pass on this tobacco without an examination of some to enable us to determine whether or not it would be suitable for our products.

Yours truly,

TO DINE IN BALLOON 12,000 FEET IN AIR

J. M. O'Connell Will Try
Trip Across Continent
From Fair

Hot meals in a balloon 12,000 feet above the earth. That is what J. M. O'Connell says he will have when he goes on the cross-continent trip that is scheduled to start from the Fresno District Fair grounds next week, beginning on Thursday and ending when the balloonists reach the Atlantic coast or when they are forced to come to earth.

O'Connell and Carter are the aeronauts who will make this unique trip. Their fleet of ten balloons marks an experiment in ballooning. But besides this feature there are others.

"Yes, he will be able to have hot coffee," said O'Connell. "We will have a time heater. What is that? Just a stove that uses unskated lime. A little water applied causes it to heat and we boil coffee. No danger of fire, and it is just as efficient as a gas range. We will have electric lights, too, which is something that no other balloon was ever equipped with. Oh, we are going to travel in style, all right."

The aeronauts will have life-preservers in case they should light in a large body of water. An aneroid will show exactly how high they are, measuring accurately by pressure up to an altitude of 20,000 feet.

O'Connell was married in a balloon and his wife is as enthusiastic as he is over the possibilities of the big air journey that he has planned in company with Albert Carter. They have been working since May assembling the big fleet of air craft. O'Connell has named the balloon in which the duo travel after his baby, calling it Florence.

SPEAKERS WILL ARGUE POLITICS

"Resolved, That the Progressive platform is the most advantageous platform for the needs of the people in California," will form the question for debate this evening at the Pilgrim Armenian Congregation church, K and I street. Mr. Henry Saravak, an ardent Progressive worker, will uphold the affirmative side of the argument and will speak against M. Avakian, who is said to profess a Rockwellian belief and is a forceful speaker. The speakers will explain many of the planks in all the parties in the course of their addresses and the meeting promises to be valuable in giving Armenian voters a better understanding of the present political situation.

AUTO DESTROYED WHEN BARN BURNS

An automobile and five tons of hay were destroyed yesterday morning at 11 o'clock when a barn in the rear of Al McNeill's residence at 1754 I street was gutted by fire. The cause of the blaze is unknown but it is thought traps were sleeping in the hay and accidentally started a fire. The total loss will reach $2200 and is covered by insurance. POWER LINE BEING BUILT TO LOMPOC

A. G. Wishon Says Construction Work Slow,
Due to European War

A new electric service line is being built from Santa Maria to Lompoc by the Midland Counties Public Service Corporation, according to announcement yesterday by A. G. Wishon, general manager of the corporation. The new line is a 12-mile extension and will cost about $15,000 when completed. The current will be released to the Lompoc Light and Power Company for general distribution, but the chief object of the extension is to furnish electricity to the Kieselbush Company for mining and manufacturing work, according to Wishon.

Wishon said yesterday that several communities have made application for power service, but that it is impossible to build new lines under the present financial stringency. He declared that the market for bonds is practically at a standstill and that the money cannot be obtained for improvement or construction work, despite the fact that the investment assures a good income.

He attributes the market condition to the war of the nations, but says that conditions previous to the outbreak of hostilities were not very good. He declares that other companies are not doing any construction or extension work to any marked extent, unless it is on the projects for which bonds were floated before war was declared by European nations.

RUINS OF WAR.

The Germans vigorously deny that there was any deliberate intent to destroy the wonderful thirteenth century cathedral at Rheims, but they do not deny, and it is therefore to be feared that it is true that the cathedral was in fact destroyed. If, of course the loss is irreparable. The great monuments of the past which stand as the milestones of human progress and practically as the only living things that have come down to us from former ages, cannot be restored, and nothing can take their places when they are gone. But this catastrophe, if it has indeed happened, is a reminder that it is war and not time which has destroyed most of these monuments, to the extent that they are destroyed or are now in ruins.

The wonderful temples of the Acropolis in Athens are now ruins, and their broken sculptural adornments which were scattered over the ground have been gathered up, patched together as well as possible, and placed in the British Museum. Instead of being restored to their former position on their broken and shattered pedestals. These temples are more than two thousand years old, and the statues from them were the best work of Phidias, the greatest sculptor of all time. But for fully two thousand years those temples did stand, not as ruins, but as still perfect structures, and they were not destroyed until they were blown up by modern gunpowder.

Even when the Turks took Greece they did not and probably could not tear them down. But they could make and did make a powder magazine of the Parthenon, and a shell from a Venetian cannon could and did what two thousand years of time had scarcely marred. All the temples and ancient structures in Rome are in ruins, but not one of them was ruined by time. The Pantheon, which alone among them all is still nearly perfect, was protected by the superstition of a mistaken Christian tradition. The only bronze equestrian statue in Rome, a magnificent statue of Marcus Aurelius, was protected by the mistaken tradition that it was a statue of Constantine, the first Christian emperor. All the other bronze monuments of ancient Rome were melted down and cast into Christian cannon by Christian vandals after the invention of gunpowder.

In locations remote from the paths of war, minor temples of ancient times which were doubtless originally nowhere near so solidly built as the temples of the city of Rome, still stand in nearly perfect condition. There is, for instance, a beautiful little temple at Tivoli of the old circular Roman type which preceded the adoption in Rome of the rectangular Grecian type, still standing almost as it was when it was first erected. The Coliseum in Rome, the only structure in ancient Rome, too big for even a thousand years of vandalism to destroy, is more than half gone. Probably not one stone in it was ever removed or marred by any agency except the destructive attacks of man. For centuries the Coliseum was the common quarry of Rome, and a large share of the mediaeval buildings of the city were built of stone and marble taken from it. The heavy stones of the outer walls were held together by bands and bars of iron. During the middle ages the inhabitants of Rome beat and drilled out all these iron bands and forged them into swords wherewith to slay each other. The best preserved of all the columns and capitals in Rome are those which are found set up in mediaeval churches. The stones were preserved and the historic monuments which had given them meaning were destroyed.

Even the picturesque ruins of the castles of the robber barons, which line the bluffs and cliffs of the Rhine, did not fall into ruin by the operations of time and nature. They were built to withstand crossbows and battering rams, but they succumbed to cannon and gunpowder. Good stone in a building will last as long as the same stone in a monument. There is no reason why a well constructed monumental building should not endure in perfect condition for a hundred thousand years, yet there are very few of them anywhere in good condition over three hundred years old. Also, the ruinous of those which were over two thousand years old has mostly taken place within three hundred years. War and gunpowder have been the vandals of all time.

If the beautiful cathedral at Rheims has been destroyed it merely means that war is still doing its hellish work, not merely in hastening the death of mortal men, but in annihilating immortal monuments and works of art.

STOPS HOARDING.

Secretary McAdoo has taken very vigorous but proper steps to prevent the hoarding of money by banks throughout the United States. It has been a common boast of banks in times of stringency that their reserves were even greater than the legal requirement and that each particular bank was therefore exceptionally safe. To the individual depositor entrusting his money to the bank, safety is the first requirement, and therefore banks have thought it worth while to proclaim this virtue, even when it went

TRIAL OF
JOHN ETIENNE GUINET

In the latter part of the eighteenth century when the government of the United States was not very firmly established they found frequent trouble among citizens who tried to make money out of conditions then prevailing in the fitting out of neutral ports of this country of armed vessels to be employed in the service of foreign countries. One of the most important incidents that came under the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court of the United States was the trial of John Etienne Guinet, who was charged with fitting out and arming a French vessel within the port of Philadelphia. Guinet and his assistants were indicted on May 11, 1795, in the Circuit Court at Philadelphia for the crime of arming the vessel, to cruise and commit hostilities upon the subjects and property of the King of Great Britain, with which France was at war.

When Guinet was arraigned he pleaded not guilty. The material facts that appeared in evidence were that Les Jumeaux entered the Philadelphia port the previous year laden with sugar and coffee from Port-au-Prince. On her arrival she mounted four guns and two swivel pieces. The master, a Frenchman, was charged with the arming of the vessel. The Philadelphia port was covered what was being done by the contractor to desist and notified the secretary of war, who directed that all the rigging equipments of a warlike nature should be dismantled, and the vessel returned to the state in which she was when she arrived.

When Guinet was apprehended two papers were found in his possession, one of them being an account in his own handwriting between Le Maître, one of his accomplices, and himself, in which were charges for supplying the vessel with arms, powder, and provisions. He confessed that he had advanced at sundry times on account of the equipment; and for commissions and attendance in superintending the repairs and outfit of the vessel.

This was the first prosecution that had occurred since the act of Congress was passed on the subject. It was contended that according to a treaty between the United States and France and American citizen had the right to enter into the service of the French government. This position having received some countenance from the refusal of the Grand Jury to issue a warrant for his arrest, Guinet was held in custody for a short time, but he was finally released on bail.

These circumstances clearly prove a conversion from the original commercial design of the vessel to a design of cruising against the enemies of France; and, of course, against a nation at peace with the United States, which is at peace with all the world, nor can it be reasonably contended that the articles placed on board of the vessel were articles of merchandise; for if that had been the case they

Torpedo Boats

A torpedo boat is an extremely fatal disease which rages among battle-

A battleship may be two blocks long and have a tougher hide than a ward politician. It may carry guns which shoot projectiles as large as oil barrels, and it may carry eighteen inches of armor on its turrets. But when it meets a torpedo boat in a dark alley on the seas it is in as much danger as the goat which ate the dynamite cartridges. The chances are that it will bounce from a $10,000,000 battleship to $500 worth of junk, complicated with liabilities, in less than five minutes. The torpedo boat is small and has sides like a paper-shell nut. One could shoot holes through it with a duck gun, and when a battleship turns loose on it the remaining look like an overgrown collander. But this does not do the battleship any good, because the torpedo boat has just spat a torpedo at it. At torpedo continues enough gunpowder to wreck a pyramid or blast a hint into the head of a New Haven railroad director. When a torpedo explodes under a battleship the latter tries to suit without a bottom for about two minutes and then gives it up as a bad job.

Torpedo boats are not made to defend themselves, but to go to places in a hurry and run away with equal enthusiasm. A torpedo boat travels forty miles an hour and is stuffed so full of engines that the crew have to sleep on the pantry shelves and the cylinder heads. Cruising around in a slim, young torpedo boat with a great desire to turn over in a storm is not as comfortable as automobile racing or riding in the caboose of a local freight.

After a man has lived for a few months in one of these boats, holding onto a hot pipe with one hand and eating cold beans out of a can with the other, and falling out of his berth ten times a night while the boat tanks in the heavy seas, he is likely to sign for a soft bed on the quarter deck of a huckling broncho.

All nations maintain vast numbers of torpedo boats and would cheerfully sacrifice half a dozen of them to sink an enemy's battleship. This is why we do not yearn for torpedo boats as a recreation.

Knights of Pythias.
Progressive Lodge No. 369, Knights of Pythias, met in regular convention last evening in Pythian Castle hall, corner I and Tulare streets, with Chancellor Commander George J. Winter in the chair, to transact the regular routine of business. Despite the inclement weather there was a much better attendance than during the hot summer months, showing the awakening enthusiasm for Pythianism.
The visiting committee reported improvement in the condition of Brother John Hamilton of 3138 Tulare street, who has been ill since the forepart of this month, and at the present time enjoys the visitation of the brothers.
During the evening's session, two applications were received and read and an investigating committee appointed on each. Under "good of the order" various ones spoke and an invitation was read and accepted from the Pythian Sisters to attend their grand ball at New York city hall, corner I and Tulare streets, on Friday evening, October 9.
Certain initiatory work was exemplified and after listening to a very satisfactory report of the master of finance on the collection of dues, the lodge closed in due form.

Experienced Women Advise Mother's Friend

Because it is so perfectly made to use and has been of great help to a host of expectant mothers, these women, experienced in this most happy period, advise the use of "Mother's Friend."

Applied externally to the abdominal muscles its purpose is to relieve the undue tension upon the cords and ligaments resulting from muscular expansion. Beneath the surface is a network of fine nerve threads and the gentle, soothing embrocation, "Mother's Friend," is designed to soothe the muscular fibres as to avoid the unnecessary and continuous nagging upon the nerves of stress. Applied to the breasts it affords the proper massage to prevent caking.

There is scarcely a well-stocked drug store anywhere but what you can easily obtain a bottle of "Mother's Friend" and in nearly every town and village is a grandma who herself used it in earlier years. Expectant mothers are urged to try this splendid assistant.

"Mother's Friend" has been prepared by Bradfield Regulator Co., 210 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for nearly half a century. Send for valuable little book to expectant mothers.

ULTIMATUM SENT TO BOARD OF EDUCATION

Must Reconsider Plans for Arlington or Face Recall

Fifteen Day Limit Is Set By Residents of District

Nearly two hundred citizens of Arlington Heights met in the home of C. E. Deib, located at 23 and Jno streets, last night and issued an ultimatum to the board of education. Should the board fail to reconsider its plans and agree to give to Arlington Heights a $125,000 school building on "school plot" within fifteen days, recall proceedings will be begun by the indignation committee.

Ample funds for carrying on the "fight" were subscribed by the members of the Arlington Association present. The meeting was held in the home because of the inclement weather.

C. H. B. Klette, president, a finance committee was appointed to take care of securing funds to carry on recall proceedings.

The following resolutions were adopted: Whereas, We the citizens of Arlington Heights and vicinity, in mass meeting assembled, have protested against the new site selected by the board of education for a school to serve the locality; and

Whereas, it is the implied intention of the board to deprive us of proper school facilities by refusing to let announced plans; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby call upon the board of education to reconsider and to carry out the intentions of the former board and to fulfill the promises made prior to the present board.

Resolved, That if the board fails to carry out the intentions of the former board, we will erect a $125,000 school building upon the premises owned by the school authorities at the corner of Grant avenue and Sixth street; that we hereby request such board to notify, on or before fifteen days from date, Mr. John W. Deib, the chairman of the executive committee appointed by us, whether they will comply with the above; and, be it further

Resolved, That in the event no reply is received or that its reply is unfavorable, the executive committee is hereby authorized and empowered to take whatever steps are necessary and expedient to bring about the recall of the board; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be served upon the Fresno Board of Education.

ONLY EIGHT DAYS MORE IN WHICH TO REGISTER

Registration Department Will Close Books to Voters October 3

Seven Hundred Have Qualified Since the Primary Election

Only eight more days remain for the voter to register for the general election to take place on November 3, according to County Clerk Barnwell. Registration books will be closed October 3, and persons not having registered during the year or having moved and not made a transfer may apply at the court house before that date and make the necessary arrangements to take part in the general election. Approximately 700 new registrations have been received by the county clerk since the primary and about 300 voters have obtained transfers. He declares that the registration compares in party affiliation favorably with that preceding the primary election. No definite assimilation of facts as to party affiliation has been compiled as yet.

FRESNANS ATTEND CONFERENCE IN SACRAMENTO

Eighteen Local Y. M. C. A. Boys to Take Active Part in Meeting

Fourth Annual Older Boys Conference to Open This Evening

Figs and raisins, alfalfa hay, Fresno City Y. M. C. A.

This is the first of eighteen Fresno delegates will give in Sacramento tonight in announcing that Fresno still occupies an important position on the map. The delegates will represent the local Young Men's Christian Association in the fourth annual Older Boys' Conference which opens this evening for three days' session with delegates from all parts of northern California.

The Fresno delegates leave on the Santa Fe at 8:05 this morning. They will stop two hours in Stockton and at 3:45 this afternoon will take the interurban electric road for Sacramento. The delegates of the work, Chester Bartlett, William Livingston, Chester Brady, Oscar Hannah, Homer Hatfield, Irving White, Chris Hansen, Ernest Collins, Fred Olsen and Alvin Bartlett.

All the delegates were "bubbling over" with spirit and enthusiasm last night with the prospect of the conference before them. Jean Vincenza, a Fresnoan, will preside at the opening banquet this evening and will conduct the nomination and election of ex-officers. Under the general head of "The Young Man and His Relationships," which has been selected as the general theme of the work, Chester Bartlett will on Saturday morning address the conference members on "The Young Man and His Church." Mr. L. T. Lewis will lead a group of delegates in the afternoon in consideration of the "Young Man and His Social Work."

It is expected that 350 delegates will attend the conference. All will be entertained in the various Sacramento homes. On last year the conference was held in San Jose and at that time 312 delegates attended. The general purpose of the meeting is to bring together older boys who are interested in associating problems for a discussion and better understanding of the work.

The Fresno delegation will wear purple and gold armlets and hats of the same color. The armlets will bear a large letter "F" to indicate the city which they represent. Hats will be given at various meetings. Irving White is yell leader and Carroll Roberts, assistant.

The Program

The conference will begin on Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock with the opening banquet to be given at the association building. This feature of the program is one of the most pleasant and profitable of the conference sessions and no delegate can afford to miss it. The general theme of the conference is "The Young Man," and at the opening banquet a number of the boy delegates will speak Friday night on a phase of that general theme, "The Young Man in the Light of Character."

At the Saturday morning session the discussions will center around the topic, "The Young Man and His Relationships," and the speakers will be the boys themselves.

On Saturday afternoon a visit will be made to the state capitol building, where his excellency, Governor Hiram W. Johnson will give an address of welcome to the delegates. In the evening a picnic supper will be served on the banks of the Sacramento river followed by a grand campfire.

On Sunday morning there will be a fellowship meeting and the delegates will attend the various church services. In the afternoon a meeting for older boys only will be held in the First Methodist church.

The closing session of the conference will take place on Sunday night and every delegate should plan to remain for this most important farewell service.

While the boy delegates are the principal speakers at the conference, a number of others have been secured.

SOCIETY

There is a contagion abroad in Fresno, and its germ is that of domesticity. It all started from the very alluring course in domestic science which the Fresno State Normal school is offering, and it's not too taxing demand on time. The cooking course promises to claim the greatest number of devotees, and among those who are to become versed in all the advanced culinary arts, are a number of the younger matrons. Vying with the cooking course for popularity is the sewing session, and from the amount of interest already displayed in the process, of garment fashioning, the problem of "getting a dressmaker" is being alleviated in a number of households.

Of all the engagements announced, of recent date none will be received with more interest, than that of Miss Jenny Lindsay Wilson and Ralph William Watson, which was made known to the friends of the popular couple in a daintily engraved card received yesterday morning. Miss Wilson and her mother, Mrs. A. G. Wilson are still in San Francisco, after an extended summer outing, and will not return to Fresno until Sunday. It was from the Bay city that the little missives were sent, and so the heaps of good wishes which would otherwise have been forwarded will be kept until her arrival in this city.

The attractive bride-elect, is one of the most popular members of the local social set, whose only regret in the approaching marriage, which has been suspended for some time, is the probability of her departure for Salt Lake City to make her future home. Mr. Watson's business interest, being in that city. Through numerous visits in Fresno, where his business and other interests have brought him frequently, the groom-to-be claims many warm friends, who will hasten to forward their felicitations. No date has been announced for the marriage but it is rumored that it will be an event of the fall season.

The Board of Directors of the Junior Lecture Club will hold the first meeting of the season on Saturday, at the club house. All members having names of prospective members to be submitted, should present them at this time, or phone the names to the secretary, Mrs. W. A. Fitzgerald.

The regular business meeting of the club will be held on next Thursday. The faculty reception which was to have been an informal event in the "doings" of the Normal school last evening, at the home of Mrs. Edna Orr James, was deferred from that date until next Thursday evening, owing to the inclement weather. The function was scheduled to be a garden party.

Mrs. Lionel Hansard is anticipating a visit from her college chum, Miss Dagmar Gunes of San Francisco, who will arrive on next Wednesday, to spend a fortnight in Fresno. Mrs. Hansard and Miss Gunes were members of the Delta Delta Delta sorority at the University of California.

Mrs. Arthur Chambers, of San Francisco, who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Phillips for a time, left yesterday for her home in the Bay city.

Mrs. C. H. Shaver and her daughters, Misses Ethel and Doris, and Miss Mabel Hixon left yesterday for a few days' sojourn at the Shaver summer home at Shaver.

Miss Bertha Douglas returned yesterday from an outing of several months in southern California, and was accompanied by Mrs. E. T. Smith of Long Beach, who will be a guest of the Tim Walton household for a fortnight.

Miss Katherine McAfee is enjoying a several weeks' outing in southern California.

The first meeting of the Fresno Relief Society for the season will be held on the first Tuesday afternoon in October in the parlors of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Mrs. M. T. Tait has returned from an extended business trip through the east, stopping at the principal cities.

Mrs. Adelaide H. Allen was the hostess at a very delightful evening party Wednesday afternoon at her attractive new home on S street, this being one of a series of informal functions which Mrs. Allen is giving. Following the afternoon's entertainment, tempting delicacies were served.

Among those included in the casual group were: Mesdames F. Hoffman, W. W. Parsons, A. Braverman, H. P. Briggs, H. E. Harbour, John Manning, E. H. Walchall, Misses Anne Moux and Clara Bryant.

The Alert Circle of the First Christian church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. G. M. Jones, at 2 o'clock, for a business meeting.

Mrs. C. A. Wotton has returned from a very interesting three months' trip through the west, where she visited at the principal cities, returning by way of New Orleans.

Mrs. Mary Chance returned last night from Long Beach, where she has been summering.

Miss Edith Malcolm, left yesterday for Mammouth, Illinois, where she was called by the illness of a relative.

Miss Dora Collier was the hostess on Wednesday afternoon at a pleasant little evening party at her home on Northcamp avenue, the popular form of entertainment being a delightful accompaniment to the informal chat. Delicious refreshments were served as the concluding pleasures of the afternoon.

Among those who enjoyed Miss Collier's hospitality on this occasion were: Mesdames J. McKinnis, J. D. Morgan, T. Ruchaupt, W. B. Isaacs, Misses Anne Tupper, Eva Clark, Mrs. Logan, Gussie Collier, Ruth Logan, Pearl Brooks, Dealey Brooks.

Mrs. H. E. Barbour will entertain the members of the Friday Afternoon Sewing club, this afternoon at her home on T street.

Mrs. L. R. Wilson and children, Master Lawrence and Miss Mildred have returned from a month's sojourn in San Francisco, and other Bay cities.

Misses Ruth Swearingen and Eunice Wilson leave this evening for their home in Topeka, Kansas, after a month or so of sight-seeing in California. For the past few days they were house guests at the home of Miss Ethel Kahn.

MRS. MILHAHN WILL BE BURIED SATURDAY

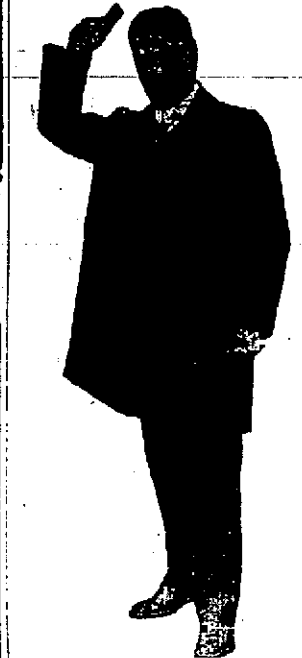

Services Will Be Held at 2 o'clock at Stephens & Bean

Funeral services over Mrs. Charles Milhahn, wife of the manager of the National vineyard, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Stephens & Bean chapel. Mrs. Milhahn died late Wednesday night following a short illness. She was a native of Germany and 44 years of age. She came to California 37 years ago with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pero. Besides her husband, Mrs. Milhahn is survived by one son, William Milhahn. She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Lamotte. Mrs. Milhahn had made her home in Fresno for many years and was well known.

What Anne Rittenhouse Says About the Styles

The Sleeve With the Brassard Is Excitingly Popular, and Is Put into All Kinds of Gowns.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—It is well known that two of the best designers in Paris continued their work of creating styles from camp and from the Red Cross hospital, so this may account for the fact that the new sleeve shows a brassard or embroidery.

Prinet puts it on a dark blue one-piece frock, using dull colors of silk does which match two pointed pieces that are placed on the hips or rather in front of the hips, and carry out the colors used in a belt that goes across the front, below the waistline and slips through two straight sides of the skirt placed at the under-arm seams.

There are other kinds of brassards on sleeves made of plain bands of material with a symbol or ornament worked in the middle. Even when there is no application in color, there is a three-inch band that covers the upper and lower sleeve midway between elbow and shoulder.

The War-Time Sleeve

It is natural that this sleeve should suggest itself to any designer in this hour. So many brassards have been worn in Paris since mobilization began that the government has had to step in and reduce the number and deny the privilege. The government itself must give permission, or the brassard will be investigated. All the people attached to the various ministries even the humblest clerks, wear brassards on the left arm to indicate their position; the Red Cross workers wear their badge, all the officials at the stations wear white and gold brassards. Whoever is doing whatever work throughout the government is empowered to put on this arm badge which serves as a passport as well as an indication to the public.

The government rightly thought that too many people were taking advantage of the protective part and therefore curtailed the right to wear the brassard and the whole episode eventually gave rise to a regulation. Hundreds of Americans may have seen this sleeve in their gowns this winter without realizing its significance and its origin. It is a good touch and provides a wide scope for ingenuity.

It is best to omit it on a coat, for the sleeve in the outer garment is long and wide, and set in to a regulation arm-hole.

Because of the slowness of the top part of the new coats there is not a fraction of an inch used at the top of the sleeve more than is necessary. The arm-hole is not outlined by a cord as it was once, but is smoothly fitted into the shoulder.

When one uses the brassard on a blouse, it is best to put it on both arms and make it of embroidery, if possible.

Broad Stripes Are Used. It is still fashionable to use a broadly striped fabric for a high collar and

SPEAKS ON VOICE OF ELEMENTS AND OF MAN

Rev. Neilsen, Adventist Pastor Urges Preparation for Hereafter

"Did you ever see a tornado? No? Well, I hope you never will. No tongue can tell, nor pen describe the terror of these few seconds, nor the night of horror that follows," said Pastor N. P. Neilsen in his sermon last evening at the Seventh-day Adventist church, where he spoke to a fair audience on the subject of the "Voice of the Elements and the Voice of Man."

Basing his discourse on Luke 21: 25, 26, he said that even the elements would add their voice to the evidences of the near approach of the coming of Christ. In his sermon he said: "There is no Bible doctrine that Satan has sought to bring discredit upon as much as that of the second coming of Christ. Every now and then some individual or sect purporting to believe the second coming of Christ puts a definite time for that event to take place. The Seventh-day Adventists have never set a time for that event, and never will. Indeed, we believe that the Savior himself rebukes any such attempts for he says, 'But of that day and hour knoweth no man.' But still there are many signs and conditions foretold in the Scriptures, which we may know that the great day is near at hand. One of these is the ungodly and unrighteous men and sea, referred to in my text."

In conclusion he said, "We would earnestly urge all to search the Scriptures in the light of the prophetic utterances, and prepare for this great event which is soon to burst upon the world." The subject for his evening's service is "The Wonders of the Heavens," by Evangelist E. E. Beddoe.

She is expected to arrive in Fresno a few days before the end of the month and will assume her duties on October 1.

Miss Herrmann has been engaged to give full time to the gymnasium work and it is expected that much will be accomplished along these lines. Her specialty is folk games, aesthetic dancing and rhythmic exercises and with the almost universal recognition of the value of this work, the local secretaries believe that the gymnasium will prove one of the most attractive features in association work.

Association Plans. The Fresno Young Women's Christian Association for the last few weeks has been planning the work of this coming term. Board and committees have been meeting for the first time since June; policies for the different departments are nearly ready and by the second week of October the educational work will have begun. Social activities have already started.

Normal Branch. The members of the Normal Y. W. C. A., a branch of the downtown association, have been busy getting acquainted with the new Normal students. On the first two days of school the cabinet served refreshments and to all the newcomers and sought out the new girls to assist them in any way possible in getting themselves adjusted in their new work. A few nights ago the Normal cabinet, consisting of twelve Normal girls, met with Miss Graciere, the general secretary of the organization, at dinner, discussed policies of work, made tentative plans for a membership campaign in the near future, and considered Bible study and social activities.

EXPORTS FOR AUGUST INCREASE OVER 1913

Total of 63,606,427 Gallons of Fuel Oil Are Shipped Abroad

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 24.—August, 1914, shows a bigger exportation of fuel oil than August, 1913, despite the handicap imposed by the war. Last month's shipments of fuel and gas oil from the United States were 63,606,427 gallons, or 1,514,415 barrels, valued at $1,550,299.

In August, 1913, the shipments were 55,577 barrels, valued at $1,550,299, so a gain of over 100 per cent is made in the corresponding month this year. Of this August's exports, over one-third, or 55,224 barrels, worth $438,224, was California oil shipped from San Francisco. It will be seen that the California oil falls far below the general average in value per barrel.

Canada was the largest purchaser, taking 19,000,000 gallons, worth $334,711. Other purchasers of California oil were Guatemala, Nicaragua, Chile, Peru, Salvador and Australia. Canada took 80 per cent of the San Francisco exports, and 17 per cent of the nation's fuel exports. The exports through San Francisco were 38 per cent of the nation's.

FORMAL OPENING OF THEATER FRESNO OCTOBER 20

Delay in Completing Remodeling Is Cause of Postponement

"Milestones" to Be First
Performance; Also Show Pictures

Because of delay in adding the finishing touches to the remodeling of the theater, the formal opening was postponed until October 20. This announcement was made during the afternoon by Fred Voigt, manager of the theater. "Milestones," which was to open the house on October 2, will be the attraction for the initial performance. A long jump will be made by this company in order to fill the engagement here. Some time ago Manager Voigt announced that one of Klav & Erlanger's best productions would open the house, and it was with the intention of making good his promise that he was able to secure another booking for Fresno.

"Milestones" is played by an entire company of English players, and according to eastern critics, is one of the best shows on the road this season. The three acts all take place in the same room, the first in 1880, the second in 1883 and the third in 1912, and the play progresses, witnesses the marked changes in dress, furniture, decorations, as well as sentiments and manners. Some of the characters are carried along by the same players through youth, maturity and finally old age, and the selection of the artists who could do justice to such a task was a matter of infinite care on the part of the management.

Another one of the early engagements of the Theater Fresno is George Arliss' "Disraeli," which has run two solid years at Wallack's theater in New York and is making a big hit on the road.

The general plan of Manager Voigt for the coming year is to have a few "dark" nights at the theater as possible. When road shows are not playing at the theater, other attractions will be booked to fill in. Voigt has the exclusive booking for Klav & Erlanger. Many big feature motion pictures will be shown at the theater. The first film attraction will be "The Sinner," by Jess Beach. This film will have a run of eight days here.

The greater part of the remodeling work has been completed at the theater and the scaffolding is now being taken down. It will take some time to put the theater in shape for the opening and Manager Voigt preferred to postpone the opening until stage "Milestones" when everything was in readiness. A new lighting system has been installed and the heating and cooling apparatus is the most modern west of Chicago. Approximately $22,000 is being expended in the renovation of the playhouse.

The boxes on the lower floor have been done away with, but an extra log has been added on each side of the theater, making six in all. This has also made room for the addition of about fifty more seats, making the seating capacity 1,658.

PARKFIELD DISTRICT IS HAVING BIG BOOM

E. G. Lewis, of Woman's Magazine Fame, to Develop Oil Territory

COALINGA, Sept. 24.—A recent issue of the Paso Robles Record says that E. G. Lewis, of Woman's Magazine fame, formerly of St. Louis, and connected with the Woman's Magazine, now in charge of the woman's ranch on the coast, is to develop oil territory in that district. The Record says: "Reports from the Parkfield oil district state that the impetus in the development of oil lands is on the boom and that within a short time it is expected that many oil rigs will be put up to drill for oil. Recently E. G. Lewis of Atascadero fame gained control of the Oakdale property, better known as the Innesdale, and will begin extensive operations in the near future. "Mr. Lewis" has bought over 2,000 acres of promising land in this section which he will develop to the fullest extent. This property passing into the hands of Mr. Lewis will make this an oil center of some magnitude as it has been virtually proven that oil of quality can be secured in and about Parkfield. With Mr. Lewis at the head of this proposition also makes it an assured fact that operations will begin immediately on a large scale.

"It has been a known fact for some time that a few miles west of town indications for oil have been the best, and recently experts who have been in the field have made the statement that this particular section is in line of the famous oil belt of Taft and other eastern oil centers."

NEW GAS TRAP IS SAVING OF MONEY

Exploration Company Now Saves Gas to Amount of 3,000,000 Cubic Feet
Formerly Wasted in Oil Well

FELLOWS, Sept. 24.—The new gas trap installed on the No. 2 well of the Northern Exploration company, section 22, 23, is doing much to make the well one of the best paying in that vicinity. The well is making much oil and in the neighborhood of 3,000,000 cubic feet of gas. With the installation of the trap this gas is saved and allowed to the compressor plant at the lower end of the Midway field. The trap, besides saving the gas, which before was going into the air, is also improving the oil, its gravity having increased more than a full degree since the trap was placed.

On the No. 1 well on section 16, 32-24 a new trap has been installed, but as yet it is not connected up with the compressor plant. Until the line to the compressor is completed no attempt will be made to conserve the gas from the well other than that of holding it back with the oil, which is flowing through a small nipple.

CARDINALS RETURN.

OSTON, Sept. 24.—Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore and Cardinal O'Connell of Boston, returning from Rome, where they had journeyed to attend the papal conclave, arrived today on the White Star liner Canopic. The steamer brought about 400 passengers, mostly American tourists.

MIDWAY TOWNS WILL HAVE REDUCED RATES

Natural Gas Co. Gets Permission From R. R.
Commission to Cut

TAFT, Sept. 24.—Follows, Bount City, South Taft and Maricopa are to have a much reduced gas rate with the current month because of a plan which has just been put through by Joseph McDonald, who handles the gas distribution in these districts. McDonald announced three weeks ago that he would cut the gas rate because of the cut made to him by the California Natural Gas company, brought about by the gas rate agitation in Taft some months ago. It was necessary, however, for McDonald to get permission to make the cut from the State Railroad Commission. In a letter just received from the commission McDonald is given permission to put the new rates into effect on October 1, with it being stated in the communication that it will be satisfactory for the commission if the cut from the State Railroad Commission, in a letter just received from the commission McDonald is given permission to put the new rates into effect on October 1, with it being stated ROMAN CHARIOT RACES AMONG NOVELTY FAIR ATTRACTIONS

Jack Mahn, astride a wild broncho (top), and chariot races (bottom), which will be seen at the Fresno District Fair.

Those who crave excitement will get their fill of it this year at the Fresno district fair. Thrills in the air, thrills on land; dare-devils of all kinds will show how little they fear danger and how they are willing to tempt fate in any and all forms.

Ben-Hur in modern guise, with fiery mustangs instead of Arabian thoroughbreds will be seen in the chariot races. Save for the lanes of a narrow canyon, transported to the times of the Roman empire. Just for one other slight difference—the chariot races will be run under the blinding glare of a huge searchlight that will illuminate the path of the racing charioteers with the blaze of noon-day sun. The hour for the races is 8 o'clock each evening of the first four days of the fair.

Regular horse races with a trackful of horses out after records may be spectacular and exciting, but for genuine thrills there is nothing to compare with four mettlesome steeds hitched to a swaying chariot, with the snap of the long whip, the urging yell of the driver, and the thunder of sixteen hoofs pounding the track in a mad rush. Two chariots abreast, multiplying the noise and excitement manifold, give an idea of why these races were so popular with the Roman populace.

There has been a revival of interest

ATHLETIC AND FANCY DANCES WILL BE FEATURED AT FAIR

Addison Fowler and Miss Enna Heidel, who will appear at the Fresno District Fair in athletic and fancy dances.

Interest in the athletic and fancy dancing to be given each evening just preceding the big free dance at the Fresno district fair in the monster outdoor dancing pavilion each night, is growing apace.

In ancient sports and chariot racing is now getting its inning. In the circus where the track is short and where it is mechanically certain that by virtue of position one certain team must necessarily win, there is usually much excitement, but on a straight-away one mile in length with half-broken mustangs there is opportunity for real racing.

Wild Mules and Horses

One of the most interesting of the daylight special features will be the wild mule and wild horse races.

These animals are genuinely wild, both by habit and by disposition. They are brought here from the ranges, most of them from Nevada. They are absolutely unbroken. Most of them have never felt the weight of saddle, and the few that have had a saddle on have become outlaws through their success in demoralizing would-be riders.

The race consists of getting the mule out of the corral, getting the saddle on, getting into the saddle, staying in it, and then inducing the mule to go round the track. The latter is the hardest of all, for a skillful cowboy can accomplish all the rest if he has plenty of assistants. But when he begins trying to persuade the mule to go a mile when the mule doesn't want to budge a single step, the fun begins. It is a case of man's persistence against the mule's stubbornness. This is one race that there is no way of fixing. If the mule wants to go he can't be stopped. If he wants to stop he can't be made to go.

Happy Jack Mahn will have his cowboys on hand to attend to the saddling of the mules. Some of them will ride in the races.

Wild mule races were held at the big rodeo in Bakersfield early in the year and have been a feature at state fairs. Everywhere they have been one of the big comic features, furnishing more real fun than any set act could.

In getting the mules from the corral and in saddling them, each rider is allowed a helper. Two of them have their hands full and there are some narrow escapes from the flying heels of the reluctant mules.

SERVICE DEPOSITS TO BE INVESTIGATED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—Upon its own initiative, the California State Railroad commission today ordered an investigation into the practice of public utilities throughout the state requiring deposits for the installation of water, gas and telephone companies requiring such deposits are summoned to appear before the commission, sitting en banc on November 23, to show cause why practices of charging deposits should not be discontinued or revised.

Bad Complexions Are Now Easily Discarded

Every woman has it in her own hands to possess a beautiful and youthful complexion. No matter how soiled, faded or coarse the cuticle, ordinary mercurial soaps will actually remove it, and Nature will substitute a skin as soft, clear and lovely as a child's. The action of the wax is not drastic, but gentle and agreeable. Minute particles of acid skin come off day by day, yet no evidence of the treatment is discernible, other than the gradual complexional improvement. One source of mercurial soap, procurable at any drug store, suffices for most cases. It is put up at bedtime like cold cream and taken off in the morning with warm water. It is a certain method of discarding freckles, liver spots, moth patches, blackheads and pimples. Wrinkles can be treated with benefit by bathing the face in a lotion prepared by dissolving 1 ounce powdered ascorbic acid in 1 pint witch hazel. Instantaneous results are secured.

The very latest dances will be demonstrated for the pleasure and edification of Fresno people. Experts who have won recognition or reputations in the East and about the bay will show the latest diversions of the Tango, the Maxixe, and other dances now popular or growing into popularity.

There's an array of them in the repertoire of the professionals who are coming, that includes about all that anyone could wish for. Just a few of them are: The Castle Lane Tango, the Fox Trot, the New York Hesitation, Castle One Step, Espanita Waltz, new Three-step Double Dip, Half and Half, and the Pop One Step, the Maxixe Brazilian, Twinkle Hesitation, Spanish Waltz, Valse Boston, New Three Step, Maurice Tango, Farolan Tango, Inspiration Valse, the Valse Espagnole, Irresistible Tango, Toilet Tango and Tango.

The program is to demonstrate a few of them each evening. On Friday and Saturday nights the prize dances will be held at which non-professionals will contest.

Three dances will be on the list for the prize exhibitions, among them being the ever-popular Tango.

The first part of each evening will be given over to the exhibitions by the professionals. Following these, local people will be given an opportunity to dance these dances. After that the hall will be opened to the general public for such dances as two-steps and waltzes and others with which all are familiar. At intervals during the evening special dances will be announced, these being the fancy dances as shown by the dancing artist.

Local teachers have been besieged with applications to be taught new dances ever since the first announcement was made. There will be no lack of contestants for the prize dances and devotees of the terpsichorean art will be out in numbers to give what they can of the latest variations and newest dances.

The large outdoor dancing pavilion that has been erected is now virtually completed. Seats along two sides will accommodate a thousand persons. The floor itself is one of the largest in the valley, being 72 feet wide by 120 feet long. It will allow several hundred dancers to enjoy themselves. A band will furnish the music. No admission will be charged either for seats or for dancing.

One of the objects of the dancing exhibitions is to show that they are moral and elevating. Addison Fowler, one of the fancy dancers, says of them: "They give grace, promote health, give self-control and develop ease, fine poise and suppleness."

Enna Heidel, Kelly and Addison Fowler will be the chief exponents of the new fancy and athletic dances. The executive committee consists of Mrs. Kelly, Miss Dorothy Burdick and Sigmund Levy. The assisting and supervising committee is made up of the following prominent people: Mrs. Geo. H. Taylor, Mrs. L. A. Nares, Mrs. Arthur Perkins, Mrs. R. E. McCabe, Miss Estelle Gray, Miss Helen Rodgers, Mrs. Will Blasingame, Messrs. T. H. Staples, H. Wingate Lake, J. G. Forter, P. M. Harwood, G. S. Waterman and E. J. Homan.

Enna Heidel Kelly has just returned from New York. Mr. Addison Fowler is one of the best known dancing instructors about the Bay region.

It is said that many of the new dances are quite easily learned despite their somewhat formidable names.

Captain Fowler to Prepare Camp at Laton for Militiamen

Company K completed preparations for a six-day encampment at Laton, October 3 to 9, in company with Company C of this city and Company H of Tulare, at a meeting in the Armory last night. Practically the entire membership of Company K will attend the encampment.

According to plans laid last night, Captain Fowler, with a number of picked men will leave Saturday, October 3, and prepare camp for the rest of the company. Captain Phillips and Major Will Kelly will leave on the same date. A number of the local militia men will be unable to get away on Saturday. These will follow the officers as soon as possible.

Captain Hurst, inspector-instructor of the California militia, will attend the encampment for several days with a view of reviewing the various companies in action.

Target practice and battalion drill will be the principal maneuvers during the six days.

WOMAN AUTOIST IS CAUGHT BETWEEN CARS

Mrs. Williams and Companion Escape Injury; Machine Wrecked

Attempting to drive an automobile ahead of a street car traveling in the same direction, Mrs. Starr B. Williams, R. P. D. No. 6, was caught between the street cars on Blackstone avenue last night and her automobile was wrecked. Mrs. Williams and the woman riding with her escaped uninjured.

Mrs. Williams drove her automobile west on Lewis avenue and turned toward the city on Blackstone. She followed on the left side of a city bound street car. Suddenly a car coming in the opposite direction appeared. Mrs. Williams tried to drive the machine ahead of the inbound car and across to the right side of the street. She misjudged her distance and was caught between the two street cars.

GOVERNOR WINS OVER BIG STORM

Speaks to Big Crowds
Despite Thunder
and Lightning

(Special to the Republican.)
HANFORD, Sept. 24. After being drenched all afternoon by a rain which poured in a pouring rain, the thunder reverberating and heavy lightning illuminating the darkened sky, Governor Johnson had his day of troubles climaxed tonight by the failure of the electric lights in Hanford, leaving to speak in a theater lighted by only oil lamps and candles. After he had spoken an hour, however, the lights came on again.

The governor rode in open machine, exposed to the drenching rain, the muddy roads, stalling the automobile like a light on wheels. He was greeted through a shower of rain and lightning. Other occupants of the car stood at a flash of lightning, which seemed to be aiming itself at the heads of the party. When the governor reached Hanford he was drenched to the skin. The rain was still pouring down and the prospect for a successful meeting seemed dim. Three oil lamps on the stage and candles stuck around the walls gave the only illumination in Ashby's theater, but when the governor began to speak every seat was filled.

The governor paid special attention to making clear that the Republicans are not endeavoring to elect for those measures which they opposed for the past four years and for which the Summer Rance, Progressive candidate for the Assembly presided over the meeting introducing the governor.

Among those upon the stage as vice-presidents were: A. P. Jewett, H. J. Balse, George A. Dodge, J. H. Dawson, Frederick Cutler, R. H. Zug and E. W. Johnson.

Speaks at Coalinga.
A rain drenched day greeted Governor Johnson on his visit to Coalinga. Following him in a forty-ton drive across to Lemoore and returning him to Hanford, as the governor started to speak on the stage, a thunder and lightning began and a downpour of rain drove the crowd into a moving picture house, where the governor spoke to his full capacity. Members of the growers club entertained the governor at luncheon.

After luncheon, the governor and the growers club of the high school and prominent Democrats assured Johnson they would vote for him.

The drive from Coalinga to Lemoore, across the desert was made in a drenching rain, in an open machine with thunder, rain, lightning and lightning playing across the sky. The governor smiled cheerfully through something wet when he reached Lemoore. There supporters and a band from Hanford greeted him and despite the down-

DRUGLESS HEALING The Hyomei Catarrh Remedy Is Nature's Own Method

To cure catarrh why not use the same common sense as in caring for a burn? You would not take a pill to heal a burn, and no one should think of curing catarrh, coughs or head colds by dosing the stomach.

Medicate the air you breathe with Hyomei. This treatment, which you breathe through a small inhaler, goes at once to the sore and congested membrane lining the nose, throat and lungs, and makes a rapid and lasting end of distressing catarrh.

Hyomei is nature's true method of treating all diseases affecting the air passages, and the most economical. The Hyomei complete outfit is no more expensive than the usual bottle of medicine, and consists of a neat rubber inhaler, easily carried in the pocket, and a bottle of Hyomei. This is usually sufficient for the ordinary case. Chronic and deep-seated trouble may require a little more of the liquid, in which case you can get an extra bottle of Hyomei at a trifling cost.

Hyomei is sold by druggists everywhere, and the San Joaquin Drug Co. guarantees to return the money to any customer who says it did not give satisfaction. If it cures the treatment is inexpensive. If you are not benefited it costs absolutely nothing.

FARMERS OPPOSE EIGHT HOUR LAW

Ranchers of State Said to Be Organizing for Active Work

A branch of the Fresno County Farmer's Protective league was organized last night at the Iowa school house, located south of Fowler, by W. H. Shafer of Selma, secretary of the county league. The object of the league is to oppose the "universal eight hour law." Similar organizations are being formed throughout the county and active campaign work will be done during the next four weeks.

Shafer in company with Hephburn Ruhl of Sacramento, state organizer, visited in Fresno yesterday to discuss the future campaign with members of the local organization. Ruhl said that the farmers over the state are organizing and that practically the entire rural vote will be against the law.

Ruhl spoke at Merced last night following his conference here in the afternoon.

THOUSAND DOLLAR VAUDEVILLE PLEASURES CROWDS AT PLAZA GREET "BIG TIME" OFFERING

Comical Rosellas, street musicians, on Plaza's $1,000 bill.

Advertised as a "thousand dollar bill" and greeted by the big crowd that this afternoon always brings forth to the Plaza, the pleasant airtime has been well filled each night.

Every act is above the ordinary. There isn't a weak spot on the bill anywhere. The pictures, another of those irresistible Keystone comedies, have made good.

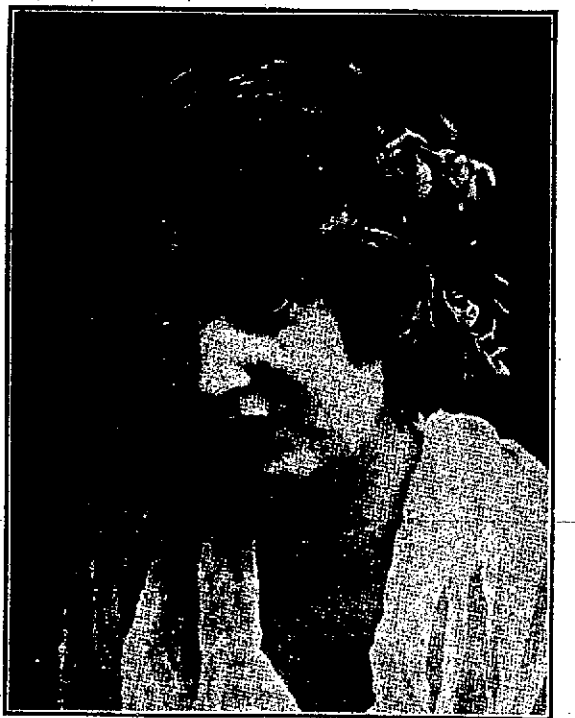

Steve Jaxon, man with the versatile spelling of his name, is a dancer, singer and musician. His musical efforts are mostly confined to the saxophone, and his singing is of comic songs. His dancing, however, is his chief offering.

Just as a part of the setting to their act, the trio of Palfrey, Barton & Brown use a rich, silk velvet curtain that is valued at more than $2,000. It is a special concession on their part to consent to hang it in an outdoor theater, but the bonds of friendship are strong and Manager Hesse has known the trio for a long time.

The "Thousand Dollar Bill" will play for the remainder of the week. Shows bicycle riding, their singing, their comedy, their novel dancing, and their entire performance is a revelation in high class vaudeville. "The follies of Mr. Hesse is in San Francisco securing Vaudeville" is the title of their act.

"IN WOLF'S CLOTHING" GRIPPING KALEM DRAMA

Again the Kalem Company scores a tremendous hit in this stirring two-act "In Wolf's Clothing." Alice Joyce portrays the role of Daisy, an heiress, and Tom Moore plays the part of Dick Worth, the hero, while Harry Millarde the character of Carter Gordon, a sneak.

This story is produced under the personal direction of Robert G. Vignola, who has established a reputation for his high class of pictures.

He has made such a story remarkable more for steadily maintained interest than its ability to stir the emotion; there are numbers of situations that arouse the blood and a few that reach the heart. Like a swift-moving cloud, it has the quality that carries away one watching it.

Maurice Costello in "Woes of a Waitress"

This photoplay has a plot of merit because it is human and shows the weakness of human nature.

The leading parts are played by Maurice Costello and Naomi Childers. Selig Western Comedy. Filmed at Flying "U" Ranch.

Wheel Quikman plays the dual role of "Weary" and "Irish Malloy" in this comedy, "The Reveler," showing today and tomorrow.

A Message From President Wilson

In a Letter to John T. Waldorf of San Francisco, he Urges the Voters of California to Elect James D. Phelan United States Senator.

PRESIDENT WILSON

JAMES D. PHELAN

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 11, 1914.

My dear Mr. Waldorf:

I was most gratified to hear of the nomination of former Mayor James D. Phelan for United States Senator. He has been in close touch with the administration in Washington, and has heartily supported the policies which have been inaugurated for the benefit of the people,—policies which, I am pleased to be informed, have met with very general approval.

The work has been well begun, and it is manifestly important for its successful continuance and prosecution that the administration should not be refused support in the Senate and House at the forthcoming election.

Therefore, I appeal not only to Democrats, but to all independent citizens to rally to the support of the men who have expressed a willingness to sustain the administration and carry on the work designed for the benefit of all. It is not so much mere party success that concerns the average citizen as sound and efficient government, and a party can best deserve credit by giving the best service to the country.

Sincerely yours,

Woodrow Wilson

James D. Phelan—

COUNCIL AT TURLOCK TO VACATE QUARTERS

Controversy Over Site of City Hall; Health Board Named

TURLOCK, Sept. 24.—The city council last night adopted a resolution to vacate the present quarters of the city offices in the Hultberg building October 1, when the present lease expires. Two months ago the council refused to pay any further rent for the building on the ground that the larger portion of the building stands on the street, and is therefore public property. Hultberg then served notice on the board that the rent would be $500 a month, payable in advance, on and after October 1. The rental during the life of the lease was $120 a month. It was stated by the trustee last night that they had been advised that the city would jeopardize its rights in the prospective suit by remaining in the building after the expiration of the lease. The resolution to vacate was adopted by the votes of Trustees Weaver, Quigley and Samuelson. Trustees Crane and Osborn voted no. The board has not definitely decided as to where the city offices and public library will be moved, but it is regarded probable that two large rooms will be obtained in the new building now being erected by A. Toppanhan of Fresno at the corner of Broadway and West Main streets.

Health Board Appointed.—The council last night appointed a board of health, consisting of Dr. W. L. Wilson, city engineer; John T. Lyster, water superintendent; C. H. Taber, Ed. Wolfe and James Brown. The board of health will have power to adopt sanitary regulations for the city and appoint a health officer to be paid by the city. It also adopted an ordinance which requires that all persons engaged in plumbing shall undergo an examination by the board of health as to their competency, and that those who pass such examination shall be given certificates allowing them to follow their trade in this city. The ordinance also prohibits all other persons from making any connection with any soil, waste, vent or drain pipes. Trustee Crane voted against the ordinance on the ground that it interfered with the right of persons to make connections on their own premises.

USES CHLOROFORM IN ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

Quick Work Saves Life of Young Hanford Woman; Farewell Note Left

HANFORD, Sept. 24.—Shortly before noon today, Mrs. Mildred Valenich was found in an unconscious condition in her home at No. 103 East Third street, and an empty bottle labeled chloroform, together with a note found on her person indicated that the young woman had attempted suicide. She was taken to the Hanford hospital, where after several hours of treatment she was restored to consciousness by Dr. Frederick Cutler, but she is not yet considered out of danger.

When interviewed, the husband of the young woman could give no reason for his wife's rash act. She seemed to be in excellent health when talking to neighbors in the early morning. A farewell note written by Mrs. Valenich said as follows:

"Blame nobody for this but my foolish self. My husband and everybody else are innocent of my trouble.—Mrs. Vivian I. Valenich."

SANGER JOTTINGS

SANGER, Sept. 24.—The high school student body was organized at a meeting held last Monday by the students in the auditorium of the new high school. The only thing of importance conducted was the election of officers for the coming semi-annual term. The officers are as follows:

President, Beula Burnett; vice-president, Chas. Cooper; secretary, Walker Carlisle; treasurer, G. A. Seeling, of the faculty. Many things are being planned for the winter, in the shape of entertainment, as the high school student body is a live bunch in a live town.

Plans are being made for the organization of a high school athletic association to arrange dates for games with other towns and to interest the people of Sanger in high school athletics. Much is expected of the organization and no one will be disappointed if they put their time and money into this work.

J. M. Reese, who was burned about the arms and shoulders in the garage fire here last week, is improving very slowly but is still confined to his bed. It was at first thought that the burns were slight, but they have been found to be much deeper and more serious than at first supposed.

L. P. Denning, who has been confined to his bed for some time by a general breakdown, is considered in a serious condition. Little hope is entertained for his recovery.

GERMAN CRUISER FIRES ON MADROS

LONDON, Sept. 24, 2:08 a. m.—The German cruiser, Emden, which has been operating in the bay of Bonat, fired another diversion to the British public by its sudden descent Tuesday evening on Madras, and a brief bombardment of that port.

The damage done by the Emden is said to be small and confined to a few sheds along the harbor front. Three Indians are reported killed and the Indian liner Chakra slightly damaged by a shell.

After this attack the Emden left in the direction of Pondicherry, where the French are said to be awaiting her.

LONDON, Sept. 24, 3:01 a. m.—In a dispatch from Athens, the correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company says he has learned from a diplomatic source that the German cruises Goeben and Breslau, which took refuge in Turkish waters shortly after the outbreak of the war, steamed out of the Sea of Marmora Monday of this week and returned to the Bosphorus yesterday.

It also adopted an ordinance which requires that all persons engaged in plumbing shall undergo an examination by the board of health as to their competency, and that those who pass such examination shall be given certificates allowing them to follow their trade in this city. Big Orange Orchard Sells for $135,000

Big Realty Deal Is Made By Southerner for 285 Acre Citrus Orchard

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 24.—What will rank as one of the most significant transactions of this district during the past season, was completed today when E. E. Sherwood of Riverside became the owner of the Open Trail ranch, formerly the property of Robert D. Adams, until recently a prominent Alaska miner. The consideration for the property was $135,000.

The Open Trail orchard includes 285 acres of fine citrus land, of which there are planted 60 acres in Valencia, from two to seven years old; 20 acres of seven-year old early navels; 50 acres of olives three years old; six acres of pomegranates and six acres of lemons. There are three irrigation plants on the property, developing 12 inches of water and a fine equipment of buildings.

Sherwood was for 17 years connected with the Chapman orange interests in southern California, and is considered one of the most widely informed orchard men in California. HIS STOCK IN TRADE.
The nervous little man next to the car window sized up the fat man who shared the seat with him and venturing the inquiry:
"How's business?"
"Can't complain," said the other laconically.
"What do you deal in?"
"Mathematics, law, politics, the weather, all sorts of things, stranded actors, candidates, politicians and the like."
"What're you tryin' to do?" enquired the nervous little man. "Tryin' to kid me?"
"Nope," the fat man grinned. "The things I have named in a large measure comprise my stock in trade. You see, my dear sir, I am a professional writer of jokes and anecdotes."—Youngstown Telegram.

WILL NOT POSTPONE SAN FRANCISCO FAIR

Secretary of State Bryan Makes Announcement in Washington

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Final announcement was made by Secretary Bryan today that there would be no postponement of the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco and that no foreign nation had given notice of its intention to withdraw from participation on account of the European war.

Bryan's statement followed:

"There will be no postponement of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. It will open according to the original plan on February 20, 1915. The government has received official notice from thirty-seven foreign governments of their intention to participate in the exposition and no foreign nation has given notice of its intention to withdraw on account of the war. In addition to the official acceptance, the government has received assurances from committees in four nations that the people of those nations would participate. Among those committees were two from Great Britain and Germany. Neither of those nations had given notice of governmental participation."

The governments of France and Italy have given notice that they will proceed with their plans for participation, notwithstanding the disturbed conditions in Europe.

Names of Participants.

The European nations which have given notice of participation are France, Italy, Austria-Hungary, Portugal, Sweden, the Netherlands, Denmark, Greece, Norway and Turkey. Spain has recently advised this government that it intends to participate.

"The Department of State has directed the diplomatic corps to advise all foreign governments that the exposition will not be postponed."

SPROULE UNDERGOES CROSS-EXAMINATION

Says S. P. Fixes Rates Only for Its Own Railroad Lines

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Federal attorneys cross-examined William Sproule, president of the Southern Pacific company, at great length today in further hearing in the Southern Pacific suit to compel the Southern Pacific to relinquish control of the Central Pacific railroad.

In reply to questions put to him upon examining the stand, Mr. Sproule testified that the Southern Pacific fixes rates only for its own line; that it further hearing in the Southern Pacific suit to compel the Southern Pacific to relinquish control of the Central Pacific railroad.

Mr. Sproule was asked whether there was some arrangement made between the two roads whereby the Southern Pacific could move some freight in California over the Central Pacific. He replied there was an agreement regarding the fruit trade, but that the Southern Pacific directed a certain kind of freight over the Central Pacific and other roads, Mr. Sproule said, but does not do this as a rule now.

The college is maintained by the California conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, and most of the faculty were in attendance at a conference in Oakland on the campus of the college of the Pacific.

PRESIDENT INDORSES NEW ANTI-TRUST BILL

Will Be Taken Up By Senate Today for Disposition

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—President Wilson let it be known today that he endorsed the Clayton anti-trust bill agreed to in the conference report which will be taken up for disposition in the Senate probably tomorrow. The President, it is known, does not agree with some opponents of the report that the conference "took the teeth out of the bill" and regards it as a measure that will respond adequately to the demand for regulation of monopolies in supplementing the Sherman act.

Administration leaders tonight were agreed that the President's approval of the bill would go a long way toward limiting opposition to the conference report.

By the end of next week, the trust legislative program, it is expected, will be on its way to the Senate, the President having decided to sign the Federal Trade commission bill before Saturday, without waiting for the Clayton bill to reach him.

RESERVE BOARD WILL ASSIST IN GOLD POOL

Announcement Made That $100,000,000 Is Now Assured

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Final steps were taken today by the Federal reserve board to aid the banks of the United States in raising a $100,000,000 gold pool to meet the nation's foreign currency needs.

The board's action today was the result of a meeting of the board in which the reserve board and the Federal reserve banks of New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and St. Louis, the major part of the fund will be subscribed by them on pledge of other cities to take a due proportion.

Following the receipt of this word, the board sent out to the chief officers of the clearing house associations in the reserve and central reserve cities circulars telling of the plan and setting forth the amount each particular city had to contribute.

The board's committee that recommended the pool plan also suggested that the fund be handled by a resident committee in New York composed of Albert H. Wiggin, William Woodward, J. S. Alexander, Francis L. Kane, Benjamin Strong Jr. and F. A. Vanderlip. This committee the board in turn approved.

In accord with the bankers' recommendations, only $15,000,000 of the total is to be paid out at once, and the whole amount is to be pledged.

The original plan was for the deposit of the $25,000,000 in the branch of the Bank of England, in Ottawa, but the present intention is to keep the fund in New York and have the committee there conduct the exchange operations either direct or through Ottawa.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The success of the $100,000,000 gold fund projected by leading national banks at the reserve center of the country is assured, according to an announcement made today by Albert H. Wiggin, chairman of the Clearing House Association and the head of the proposal.

Mr. Wiggin has been informed by the Federal reserve board that sufficient subscriptions to the fund had been received assuring its successful accomplishment and has asked the board for its formal endorsement of the plan.

He was received by a delegation of business men headed by Charles J. Adair, state central committee chairman.

After the evening address, Senator Curtin spoke for nearly two hours during which time he reviewed the Johnson administration making an especial feature of the false pretense and extravagance which has been in evidence since the Progressives have had control of the state. In closing, particular stress was taken on the necessity of supporting President Wilson in his policy of universal peace.

BRITISH CREW TELL OF FIGHT WITH GERMAN

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, Sept. 24.—Details of the sinking of the German steamer Cap Trafalgar by the British auxiliary cruiser Carnarvon several days ago were related by the sailors of the British vessel which arrived here today. The battle took place at a point 300 miles off Rio Janeiro, Brazil, and lasted two hours. The Cap Trafalgar lowered her flag as if to surrender, whereupon the yacht fired and the German vessel was killed.

The survivors of the German vessel, it was learned, were rescued by a British ship. It is said, were rescued by a collier.

ELECTRIC STORM STRIKES VALLEY; DAMAGES RAISINS AND POWER COMPANY LINES

Bolt of Lightning Crashes to Ground Within Few Feet of Columbia School; Trolley Poles Are Burned

A terrific electrical and rain storm broke over Fresno early yesterday afternoon, damaging power wires, and fruits being cured, burning power poles, and inflicting other losses. School children of the Columbia school were given a severe fright when a bolt of lightning struck within a few feet of the building.

Reports from the local weather bureau state that the storm was confined principally to the several counties in the San Joaquin valley in the raisin district. Rain began in Fresno at 1:40 yesterday afternoon and continued with practically no interruption during the afternoon. At 6 o'clock last evening, 20 of an inch had fallen.

James Madison, manager of the Associated Raisin Company, said that so far as he had been informed the rain had not materially damaged the raisins now drying, but that many of them would be "sanded." He said that he would have a definite report on the situation by today, if the rain does not continue, but that he does not expect very much complaint from any section unless the rain has been heavier in some localities than has been reported.

Damages Power Lines.
The electric storm played havoc with the lines of the San Joaquin Light and Power Corporation from Bakersfield to Merced and more than a dozen poles were damaged by lightning. The valley service was slightly crippled as a result of the storm but scores of men were at work on the lines last night and repairs will be completed by day break. The Fresno Traction Company also suffered damage from the lightning. Three poles were split and the fourth was set on fire. Temporary repairs were made immediately and no runs were missed by the street cars.

There was a little trouble on the Light and Power Corporation's lines from the mountains, which caused the lights in Fresno to be out for short intervals. An official of the power company stated last evening that there had been no trouble at the power plant but that the lines had been struck in two or three places by lightning.

The lightning struck the power company's lines in the valley the hardest blow. Several of the poles were set on fire and the wires were knocked down. It was with much difficulty that service was continued. Wiremen were at this city and it is believed that all repairs will be completed by morning.

Traction Company Hit.
Four poles along the street car line in Huntington Boulevard were struck by lightning. Pieces of the cross beams on the poles were picked up 150 feet away from the car tracks. The flash set the arms of the fourth pole on fire. A street car was in about 5 blocks of the street when the lightning struck. The motors on two street cars were burned out when the electricity followed the trolleys and passed through them.

Considerable excitement was caused in the vicinity of the Columbia school yesterday afternoon when a flash of lightning struck at the intersection of Merced and C streets. A big cloud of dust was thrown up by the lightning bolt and rumor soon spread in the neighborhood that the Columbia school had been struck. Frantic mothers made for the school to rescue their children. The excitement was not quieted until school dismissed 10 minutes ahead of schedule time.

hundreds of an inch of rain fell here after noon today. However, it is believed that little damage was suffered by the raisin growers, as many already had a crop of the fruit on hand, and many others were warned in time, when the noon report was distributed over the phones. The nearest approach to serious damage occurred within the city. Storm sewers which were choked with the accumulation of summer dirt proved inadequate in the down town section this afternoon during the heaviest part of the rain, and the gutters filled to the sidewalk line and threatened to enter some of the stores.

Raisins Damaged.
HANFORD, Sept. 24.—A heavy downpour of rain late today has probably caused great damage to the raisin crop of King's county. The extent of damage depends upon tomorrow's weather. The King's county crop already is thirty per cent below normal, and it is believed that another severe storm would reduce it a half.

Merced Soaked.
MERCED, Sept. 24.—The heaviest September rain in years struck this city shortly after 12 o'clock today and for half an hour the water came down in torrents, accompanied by lightning and deafening thunder. This afternoon the rain continues.

MIXED DATES TIE UP SUPERIOR COURT CASES

Call for 'Naturalization Hearing One Week Too Early

A misunderstanding as to the date on which naturalization hearings are to be held caused the suspension of all business in both departments of the Fresno county superior court yesterday. It was finally decided that next Thursday is the proper date, instead of yesterday, and thirty-eight applicants were requested to return next week.

Judge Austin left yesterday morning for Merced to sit for Judge Hector. Judge Church called the naturalization court to order yesterday but found that Federal Examiner Jones was absent. The court immediately telegraphed Chief Naturalization Examiner Crutcher at Los Angeles as to the absence of Jones. Crutcher immediately returned the decision that according to a government ruling, the first Thursday after the fourth Monday in the quarter month was the day for naturalization hearings. This would make next Thursday and not yesterday the proper date.

Some months ago the Fresno county board of supervisors ruled that the last Thursday in each quarter month should be the date of naturalization, but it seems that the federal officers were unaware of this change. To avoid any possible legal difficulty, the cases were postponed until next Thursday.

EIGHTY ATTEND CHURCH SOCIAL

Eighty young people attended the "Vacation" social, given at the First Presbyterian church last evening. A novel feature of the evening was "the trip to Yosemite Valley," in which the visitors were brought before ingenious representations of the best known points in Yosemite Valley. The guides were Clarence Goldert and Reginald Louch. The part of the hotel clerk was taken by J. W. Bolen. His was assisted by C. H. Kernig and Ernest Wingate.

NARES TO CALGARY WATER MEETING

L. A. Nares, who went to Stockton yesterday as delegate to the Chamber of Commerce to the Inland Waterways Association, was armed also with credentials, issued to him by the supervisors, which allow him to represent Fresno county at the Twenty-First International Irrigation Congress to be held Oct. 5th, at Calgary. John Fairweather left for Stockton yesterday where he will represent the San Joaquin Valley Water Problems Association.

OBTAIN JURY FOR WEBBER MURDER

A jury for the Webber murder case was impaneled yesterday by Judge Church. Webber is charged with shooting Peter Haupt on August 11 as the result of a quarrel over an irrigation ditch. The shooting took place at the Ryanmore ranch near Fresno. Following are the jurors: E. Kunkel, William Loper, J. W. Bolen, Charles G. Langquist, L. H. Storgard, John G. Sinclair, W. G. Holland, P. W. Becker, W. E. Bullis, E. C. Marshall, P. J. Erickson and T. H. Flint.

SAMPLE SUES FARM COMPANY

D. C. Sample, the cattleman, brought suit yesterday against the Round Mountain Citrus Farm company for $500 damages for loss of pasturage by fire on August 10, 1914. Sample claims that fire starting on the company's property, swept four sections of his pasture land.

DELAYS BEESON CASE UNTIL OCT. 5

Judge Church yesterday postponed the case of W. E. Beeson of Sanger, charged with fraudulent collection of fire insurance for loss of pasturage by fire on August 10, 1914. The postponement was taken owing to other business. Had not Church delayed the case, attorneys for Beeson would have moved for a postponement as Beeson's two sons are reported dangerously ill with typhoid fever.

CLAIM AUTOIST DRUNK
Al Curran was arrested last night by the police on a charge of driving his automobile under the influence of liquor. Curran is alleged to have driven his machine into J. L. Cruse of 1161 H street at G and Kern streets.
